Program:

Day 1: Arrival

Flight to Belgrade, where your bus and tour guide will already be waiting for you. Transfer to the hotel.

Day 2: “Old” and “New” Belgrade

We begin exploring the city with a comprehensive sightseeing tour, including Kalemegdan Fortress, the pedestrian street Knez Mihailova, and Saint Sava Temple, one of the largest Orthodox churches in the world. Afterwards, you will leave the typical tourist paths and discover attractions that have turned Belgrade into a center for young people. Former industrial districts have been transformed into trendy neighborhoods filled with art galleries, bars, and nightclubs. During the tour you will see several districts such as Savamala, located directly on the Sava River; Dorćol, often referred to as the “Manhattan of Belgrade”; and Skadarlija, a bohemian quarter frequently compared to Montmartre in Paris.

Optional: In the evening, dinner can be arranged at Dva Jelena, a traditional restaurant that has existed since 1832. Its cozy atmosphere is complemented by traditional live music.

Day 3: EXPO

Today is dedicated to visiting the EXPO.

Day 4: Departure
